Hyde Park Street Fair Children's Area

The Giraffe Laugh Children's Area at the Hyde Park Street Fair is one of the primary fundraising activities on behalf of children in need at Giraffe Laugh Early Learning Centers. Giraffe Laugh provides scholarships to income eligible families so that their young children ages six weeks to third grade are able to attend our early learning programs that prepare them for kindergarten and the world beyond. Additionally, we provide a food bank at all sites, we provide meals and formula to children while in our care and extracurricular activities to level the playing field for all children. Your participation in the Children's Area helps us on our important mission of ensuring school readiness, empowering families and building strong futures!

$1,000 Event Sponsors receive signage with a business logo at both entrances and around the children's area as well as special recognition on our website, social media outlets, Empowering Futures Stakeholder Newsletter and in our annual report. Sponsors also receive six wristbands for the children of your choice to go on all rides free throughout the weekend.

$500 Obstacle Course Sponsors receive signage at the event, recognition in our Empowering Futures Newsletter, website, on all social media outlets and our annual report. Sponsors also receive four wristbands for the children of your choice to go on all rides free throughout the weekend. The obstacle course is the most popular attraction at the event.

$250 Carnival Sponsors receive a sponsor sign in the carnival area and can provide a banner if wanted. Sponsors are give special recognition in our Empowering Futures Newsletter. This is the second biggest attraction at the event.
